ANY ONE OR ALL OF OUR RESTAURANTS CAN SERVE YOUR EVENT

The market's central bar pays homage to Fort Greene's band of tradesmen who built Brooklyn in the 1850s. Featuring a list of 13 local, regional and seasonal NY beers, craft cocktails and great wines by the glass or bottle.

BOQUERIA

Boqueria's first Brooklyn location offers guests a full-service dining experience for lunch, weekend brunch and dinner. Menu highlights include Spanish tapas such as datiles con beicon, patatas bravas, and pulpo a la plancha, paired with a list of Spanish wines, spirits and cocktails.

Mason Jar brings its Southern hospitality to Brooklyn, serving Southern comfort food, house-smoked meats, beer, bourbon and barbecue, with a selection of over thirty beers on tap, and a list of whiskey- and bourbon-based cocktails.

For those on-the-go, MJ Station serves a selection of Mason Jar's signature dishes, including sandwiches and smoked meats, available to go or to enjoy in the market's communal area.

Flip Bird features both rotisserie and fried chicken using birds from the Amish Country that are humanely raised and always antibiotic-free. Get them by the plate with two sides or in sandwiches and salads both flipped or fried.

Apizza Regionale specializes in Neapolitan/NY individual brick oven pizzas, sourcing our ingredients from NY state and the surrounding area. We make our mozzarella and sausage daily, and use organic stone-ground wheat from Upstate NY. Seasonal salads and salumi boards also round out the menu
